User Stories:

- The parent shall be able to login into the portal using his/her credentials
- The parents shall be able to see the student's name and the enrolled subjects
- The parent shall be able to see the teacher's name when one clicks on a course.
- The parent shall be able to click the meet me button under the teacher's name.
- The parent shall be able to schedule appointments after clicking the meet me button.
- The parent shall be able to receive the notification if there occurs a conflict with another appointment.
- The parent shall be able to receive the confirmation email after booking the appointment.
- The parent shall be able to log out of the portal using his/her credentials.
- The parent shall be able to click the help button, and view the help manual for guidance.